

How do you apply for the large or single-parent family card?

Large family card

This is an official document proving large family status and entitling holders to various benefits throughout Spanish territory. The card is issued and renewed by the General Directorate for Families of the Department of Employment, Social Affairs and Families. It entitles each member of the family to an individual, personal and non-transferable card, valid in Catalonia and throughout Spain, enabling them to benefit from advantages at a range of institutions, bodies and commercial establishments. The individual card is issued together with the large family card.

Single-parent family card

This is an official document proving single-parent status and entitling holders to various advantages. The card is issued and renewed by the Department of Employment, Social Affairs and Families. It entitles each member of the family to an individual, personal and non-transferable card, valid in Catalonia, enabling them to benefit from certain advantages. The individual card is issued together with the single-parent family card.
